

Privacy Policy

Eventspoint has adopted this privacy policy in order to assure users of our commitment and dedication to privacy. The following privacy guidelines apply to the website 'Eventspoint.co.uk (Site).

Eventspoint respects your right to privacy and invites you to visit our Site to search or browse without revealing who you are or registering with us. However, if you choose to give Eventspoint personal information via the Internet, for example when you contact us with an enquiry, your personal information will only be used for the purpose for which you have provided it.

IP addresses

When you visit our Site, some information such as your Internet protocol address, Internet service provider, operating system, the Site from which you arrived, and the time and date of your visit may be collected automatically as part of the software operation of this Site. This intake of information is entirely anonymous. Eventspoint uses this information solely for internal marketing purposes, for example, to see what pages are most frequently visited in order to improve the Site.

Personal Information

Whenever Eventspoint collects information that you voluntarily submit, it is our intent to inform you of why this information is being requested and how it is going to be used. Eventspoint will not sell, distribute, or give your personal information to any third party. Eventspoint shall not be liable for any personal information that you submit to external vendors or to any web site linked to this Site.

Nature of Data on the Internet

Eventspoint is mindful of people's concern about the protection of information via the internet and would like to assure visitors of our intent to keep secure any personal information that you submit to us. We will continue to take steps to maintain the security of this Site. However, the open nature of the Internet is such that data may flow over networks without security measures and may be accessed and used by people other than those for whom the data is intended. Therefore, in submitting personal information to the Site, you assume the risk of a third party obtaining that information.
